

Aggressorgate A group of MEPs accepted large sums of money and gifts from officials of the aggressor country in exchange for influencing EU policy in favour of the aggressor. Several people were arrested.  All -1 credit	Business as Usual The leader of your political group forgot to declare that her husband has business connections in an aggressor country. Although the activity is not subject to sanctions, it looks bad.  You -1 credit	Misused Allowances An MEP from your political group was using allowance money to rent an office from his son. Journalists have discovered the scam.  You -1 credit
Nepotism The president of the EP is accused of promoting close allies to key positions. The president denied wrongdoing, but the public discussion has damaged the EP's reputation.  All -1 credit	Fake Jobs The leader of your political group used EP funds to pay for jobs unrelated to the work in Parliament. She claims that accusations were politically motivated.  You -1 credit	Misused Allowances An MEP from your political group used allowance money for their re-election campaign. They deny any wrongdoing, but society is concerned about how MEPs use EU funds.  You -1 credit
Nobel Prize EP was nominated for a Nobel Peace Prize for creating war-avoiding frameworks.  All +1 credit	Popular Election Turnout in the previous EP elections was the highest in history.  All +1 credit	Against Corruption EP anti-corruption measures have been recognised by most of the civic organisations.  All +1 credit

EVENT

EVENT

EVENT

EVENT

EVENT

EVENT

EVENT

EVENT

EVENT